Clinic	Ages	Day	Time
Pee Wee: (Foam & Red Balls) This program focuses on a fun approach to coordination, movement, balance and initial racquet skills using tennis related games and activities.	4-6	Tues. & Thur. *Saturday	9:00-9:30 am 9:00-9:30 am
Red Ball 1: This program will build the foundation for a lifetime of tennis. Racquet control, tracking, positioning, stroke technique, balance and coordination will be learned through cooperative and competitive games, activities and contests.	6-8	Tues. & Thur. *Saturday	9:30-10:30 am 9:30-10:30 am
Red Ball 2: Students will continue to sharpen their red ball 36' court skills while learning to transfer these skills to the 60' court and orange ball. The larger court will increase the focus on movement, tactics and tracking. By the end of this program players should be able to play on both the 36' and 60' court.	7-9	Tues. & Thur. *Saturday	9:30-10:30 am 10:30-11:30 am
Orange Ball: Players will leave this program competent in singles and doubles with the orange ball on the 60' court. Strategy and tactics with an emphasis on all-court play will be the daily focus. As skills improve players will be exposed to the green ball on the 78' court.	8-10	Tues. & Thur. *Saturday	10:30-12:00 pm 11:30-1:00 pm
Tournament Development: (Green Dot & Yellow Balls) This class will build on the techniques established in the Orange Ball class with more emphasis on match play skills including tennis rules, positioning, strategy and shot selection.	9-12	Mon. & Wed.	9:30-11:30 am
